

Fall Care-a-Thon, Nov. 30—Dec. 3

Be Not Afraid

Many people are afraid these days. The main stream news, especially, provokes fear in people. All of us have family members who are quite afraid, and those who are not. There are 365 places in the Bible that refer to not being fearful. Saint Pope John Paul II also frequently preached “Be Not Afraid.” Thus, the Board of Directors of Divine Mercy Radio chose “Be Not Afraid” as the theme for the fall care-a-thon, which will be held Nov. 30 through Dec. 3.

Divine Mercy Radio has had to “Be Not Afraid,” too, as we pushed forward and put two bigger stations on the air last year. Now, we need to keep them on the air, and that is where we need your help. Those of you who give monthly or regularly through our bi-annual care-a-thons, thank you. Your support is greatly appreciated. It would also be fantastic if you could help us spread the word, by just talking amongst your family and friends and asking them to tune into Catholic radio. If people tune in, and the Holy Spirit directs which hour they listen to, then they will find the faith, hope and peace that Jesus longs to give all of us.

People will often tell me they like this show or that, and don’t like this show or that one, and I appreciate hearing the feedback. There should be shows on the radio that appeal to all listeners, and it’s just finding the ones that appeal to you. Some like the current news and issues programs of Catholic Connections, Kresta in the Afternoon and The World Over. Others like catechesis like Called to Communion and Open Line. Others like the shows that help them through problems in their lives, like More 2 Life, Take 2 and The Doctor Is In. Many like the apologetic shows like Catholic Answers. According to our streaming statistics, many people like hearing from their local people and priests in Double-Edged Sword and the One Body shows. Whatever your taste, Divine Mercy Radio has something to offer that will enrich your faith.

Catholics are not known for standing on street corners and preaching about the church Jesus founded. Catholics are not known for knocking on doors and handing out literature. Catholics are not known for holding rallies that fire people up and get them to come forward and immediately accept Jesus. Catholics preach by the way they live, the kindness they share with others, by developing relationships and sharing personal faith stories. Listening to Divine Mercy Radio can help us learn our faith in a deeper way, and also teach us how to live it out daily. We need this encouragement. Thus, Divine Mercy Radio, which is now a network of stations, is worth supporting.

Care-a-thons are a fun time for all of us. We have great prizes donated by faithful listeners. We enjoy people calling in answering trivia. We love people coming up to visit us in the studio. Plus, we appreciate all the great talks by our guests. It takes all of you, in one way or another, to help make these care-a-thons a grand success. Our goal is $100,000, and that is less than one-third of our annual budget. We’re certain with all of your help in spreading the word about Divine Mercy Radio, this goal can be reached.

So, let’s listen to great presenters, play trivia and have some fun during this fall care-a-thon, Nov. 30 through Dec. 3.
